World Book Day at Stanton

Wow- what a day we've had here at Stanton on World Book Day! We have been blown away by the efforts made by the children and their grown-ups, to create an exciting collection of imaginative book characters.

We started our day with our Booky Breakfast, where children were served Potter Pancakes, Paddington's Marmalade Scones and Wonderland Smoothies, by an array of book characters. The buzz created the children's excitement was very special to see and after our tummies were full, the children settled down to enjoy stories at breakfast.

Later this morning, the children were treated to an exciting (and slightly mysterious!) performance by the wonderful staff we have here at Stanton. The children were enthralled and transfixed on the storyline, which involved Sherlock Holmes questioning his various book character suspects after a snapped Orange Crayon from 'The Day the Crayons Quit' was discovered. Gangsta Granny couldn't explain her suspicious purchase of sticky tape, Matilda and Mary Poppins were unable to recall the colour crayon used to write their shopping list, Cruella De Ville and

Harry Potter were concocting a potion using amber wax and Fantastic Mr Fox was in desperate need of art supplies! The children then asked our suspects lots of impressively thoughtful questions and recorded their theories on a large floor book in the hall. Hearing the children whispering amongst themselves throughout the day as to who they thought the culprit could be, was fantastic. At the end of the day the real suspect was revealed... We hope the children will tell you all about it!

Many children also took part in our Book Character Potato competition, entering incredibly imaginative potatoes that proved very difficult to judge. Well done to everyone that entered and a special well done to our winners.

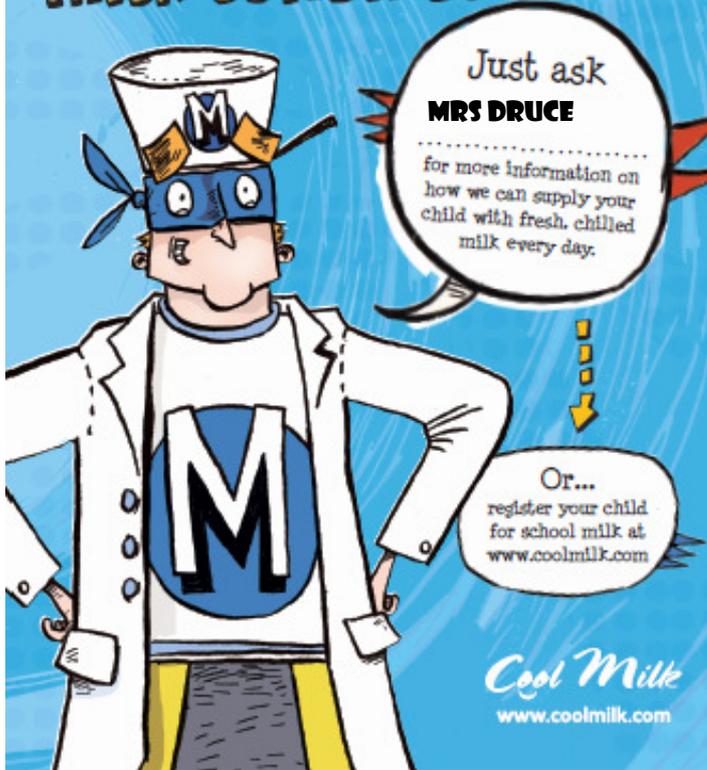

The children have enjoyed a range of book day themed activities in their classrooms throughout the day and it is clear that a love of reading is very much embedded here at Stanton. Thank you to everyone for their efforts and a very special thank you to all the staff and their tireless efforts and enthusiasm that have made today such a memorable experience for the children.

We have a school milk scheme!

Rhine and Amazon—We The Curious trip

How do rockets make it all the way into space? As part of our trip to We the Curious Rhine Class took part in the 'Launch It Show' to support their curiosity and learning in Science and the World around them. They investigated how propulsive forces and explosions were used to launch Yuri Gagarin, the first person to travel into space.

We all had the opportunity to take part in lots of activities and ask questions, with whizzes, bangs and rockets, the day was a big hit!

School Meals— REMINDER Payments for School meals

You need to be aware that our new contractor will NOT provide a meal without payment. It will be important to ensure if your child requires a school meal, the correct payment is made in advance or on the day through your Parent Pay account. No meal can be ordered with a debit balance. To avoid embarrassment or confusion and Mrs Druce having to telephone you, we are asking in advance for your understanding of this. There is no flexibility and we will be working with Edwards and Ward to ensure all meals are paid for on or prior to ordering. Thank you for your understanding and help in this matter.

Superb Result by our Gym Team!

Last week our Gym Team were involved in a Gymnastic Competition at Hardenhuish School. We were amazing! Congratulations to:

Individual

Olivia – 2nd Place
Niah – 3rd Place

Overall team Stanton St Quintin Second Place

Monkton Park School 1st Place
Queens Crescent 3rd Place

Very well done and thank you to Mrs Austin for coaching the team to such a high standard.

Good luck to our Netball team who will be representing the school tomorrow and to our Rugby team next Friday.
