Situation

Lower Littleworth House is situated in Lower Littleworth, a hamlet just below the popular village of Amberley, close to Rodborough and Minchinhampton Commons, which comprise 600 acres of National Trust owned land. Amberley is an attractive village of scattered houses enjoying views over the Woodchester Valley and beyond. The village provides a range of amenities including church, post office & shop, primary school and the Amberley Inn (in addition to nearby Bear of Rodborough). Schools in the area include primary schools in Minchinhampton & Amberley, excellent grammar schools for boys and girls in Stroud, and private schools include Beaudesert Park, which is on Minchinhampton Common and Wycliffe College. Recreational facilities include a leisure centre at Stroud, two golf courses at Minchinhampton, racing at Cheltenham and rugby at Gloucester. There is access to a diverse network of rights of way and footpaths throughout the region.
