Harz Mountains

Visit the Harz Mountains the land of German Fairy Tales

Places to Visit

The Harz Mountains has one of the best collections of well preserved 16th century towns in Germany, rich in German history and legend.

Quedlinburg

It would be hard to find a more charming town than Quedlinburg with its narrow cobbled streets lined with over 1300 half timbered houses.

First capital of Germany and designated UNESCO world heritage site

Goslar

Goslar is famous for its delightful half timbered thatched houses and wooden carvings, some of which are rather scandalous!

Fisleben

Where Martin Luther founder of the Lutherean church was born and died.

Things to Do

Here are some ideas of things to do during your stay.

Broken Mountain

Take an old steam train to the summit of Broken mountain the highest peak of the Harz. Where it legend has it that witches gather on for German Halloween.

Rammelsberg Silver Mine

In operation for over 1000 years. UNESCO world heritage site. Wear miners coveralls and go down into the tunnels and ride the miniature train the miners used .

Thale

Take a gondola to the mountain top to discover the history of witchcraft

Wernigerode Castle

The small town of Wernigerode lies at the base of the Broken. Its castle sits on a hill overlooking the wonderful collection of medieval houses with elaborate wood carvings

Explore Harz National Park

The legendary mountain is part of a unique landscape which is characterized by steep mountain ranges, steep plateaus, cliffs valleys and gorges, home to a rich variety of flora and fauna.

Within the mountain forests of the higher regions feature clear mountain streams, rocks, boulder fields and bogs you can discover the 'mystical mountain magic'.

Wildlife Spotting

Lynx were re-introduced to the region in 1999. These gorgeous tufty eared creatures are very shy, so spotting them in the wild would be very lucky. A visit to the Lynx enclosure in Rabenklippe ensures you get to see these majestic animals.

In addition to the Lynx enclosure, the Harz National Park has a Capercallie enclosure and two animal watching stations, allowing you to get closer to nature
