

LO: I can add the suffix ed and ing when a change to the root word needs to be made.

There are a few to catch you out!
Sometimes instead of adding ed, the word changes completely in the past tense.
Example: sleep sleeping slept
These boxes are blue to help you.

LO: I can add the suffix ed and ing when a change to the root word needs to be made.

Now revise this rule too: When a word ends in an e, take off the e, then add ing or ed.
