

To speak clearly and confidently to different audiences

To communicate your ideas clearly through your writing

To ask questions to help you understand things better

To give reasons for your opinions in discussions

To look after your body by eating healthy foods and exercising daily

To use strategies to help you to look after your mental wellbeing and keep you happy

To make responsible choices about how you live your life

To know your rights and keep yourself and others safe

To know about your own history, your local area and the world

To respect diversity and join in with others to celebrate it

To know your rights and respect the rights of others

To take responsibility for protecting the environment

To have a positive attitude to life, be resilient to setbacks and take pride in your achievements

To show respect to others and not tolerate any form of bullying

To prepare you for life in modern Britain by learning about British values

To take responsibility to protect the environment and actively help to improve your local area

To be creative and use your imagination to innovate and explore new ideas

To be aware of yourself as a learner and develop your learning muscles to help you become a successful learner

To know more and remember more about what you are learning, so you that you are better prepared for the next phase of your education

To use all the opportunities given to you to nurture your talents and interests